Clarification of News Report

We refer to the article, "Buying Fruit", Biz Buzz, Philippine Daily Inquirer, December 16, 2020 which reported in part that:

"Leading food and beverage kiosk operator Fruitas Holdings has attracted a new investor who has agreed to buy 25 million secondary common shares from the controlling group at P2 per share. The P50 million block will be crossed at the Philippine Stock Exchange today.

The buyer is Chinoy businessman Jefferson Ngo who has been investing on Wall Street but is now keen on picking up local stocks for a long-term investment horizon. His family owns Solanda Enterprises, which provides machines for the marine, agriculture, construction, power generation and household industries..."

In relation to the above-quoted news article, we wish to confirm that based on the submitted Statement of Changes in Beneficial Ownership submitted to the company, our President and CEO, Lester Yu, through his controlled company Lush Properties, Inc., sold 25 million shares at P2.00 per share today. We also confirmed through our President and CEO that the buyer is Jefferson Ngo, whose family owns Solanda Enterprises. The management of Fruitas looks forward to potential synergies with its shareholders.
